NEWPORT SQUAB-ENGLISH.

How the New York Snobs, Male and Female, Ape the English Snobs.

(Cincinnati Commercial.)

Saratoga is really ten times more democratic than Newport. Newport is the home of the New York and Boston flunky. A New York flunky is an idiotic young swell, who belongs to the Knickerbocker Club and who spends his time at cards, champagne, etc. In the afternoon he toots a little tin horn from a top seat in the coaching club. In his conversation he affects a limping, slangy, English dialect. It is not even pigeon English—it is squab-English. It is a positive fact that there is a class of brainless young swells growing up in New York who do not speak the good old English language as it is spoken by W. S. Groesbeck in Cincinnati or Senator Hendricks in Indianapolis. The representative Western man could no more understand these society Newport idiots when they talk than they could understand pigeon-English. Not that they talk anything but twaddle, for they don't, but because they leave off the American R and talk in a teacupful of jumbled up English slang. A day or two since one of these American flunkies—young Hammersley, I believe—sat behind us for two hours at the races and talked to a descendant of John Jay in about this manner:

Male Idiot—Aw, Miah Jay, 'joying the races to-day?

Female Idiot—Yeth; they're awfully jawly, ain't they? Right fun to bet, ain't it?

Male Idiot—Yeth, rather jawly to bet when you win, you know; but bestly to bet and lose, you know.

Female Idiot—Do you lose? Well, that wasn't s'offly jawly. Lost myself yest'day. Dare say you will win again to-morrow, and then you'll think it jawly fun, you know.

Male Idiot—O! dare say shall; but can't help feelin' beastly 'bout losin' yest'day, you know. Do you like boatin'? Think it's right fun—s'offly jawly, you know—and—

And there we sat and listened while these two flunkies—this male and female flunky—repeated the same slang by-words "awfully jawly" seventy-nine times, "right fun" ninety-six times, "perfectly beastly" 462 times, and "you know" 1948 times. Now, I can stand good square slang—slang that means something—but this idiotic English slang, which the New York flunky spins out and lives on at Newport is enough to cause insanity. I hope the first young idiot in Cincinnati whose rich father, in an unguarded moment, lets his half-demented son go to England and pick up this slang—I say, I hope this first young Cincinnati idiot who dares to murder Mr. Groesbeck's English will find himself dangling, shirtless and hatless, from the middle span of the great bridge.

Squab-English is produced by rolling up the tongue, leaving out the R, and pronouncing sure as if it were shaw; pure, as paw; rare, as raw, etc. The adverb sure would be compared thus: Shaw, shawa, shawest; (pure) paw, pawa, pawest; (more, moa, most; (poor) poo, pooa, pooest, etc. It's the negro dialect of England, stolen by funky New Yorkers, to let us common people know that the fool who is talking has been in England.

A Shameful Sight.

There was a disgraceful and pitiful sight at the Depot hotel this afternoon. A middle-aged woman, dressed in mourning, was lying dead-drunk upon the steps, and beside her sat a little girl about five years of age, weeping bitterly. The garments of the woman and child were good, and did not at all betoken poverty. Constable Barlow and Deputy Sheriff Avery arrived and attempted to awaken the miserable woman from her sodden sleep. It proved to be impossible, however, and she was lifted upon a truck and wheeled across Commercial Row to a hotel. A $5-piece dropped from her hand as she was lifted. That saved her from the calaboose. The poor child, young as she was, screamed in an agony of distress and shame as her insensible mother was trundled across the street. Where the woman came from and who she is, nobody seems to know. She is a stranger in town.

An Attempt at Blackmail.

BUFFALO, August 20.—Charles F. Wood, aged twenty, claiming to be a son of the President of the Chicago Board of Police, and James D. Smith, aged nineteen, of Chicago, attempted to levy blackmail on two Buffalo young men in the company of two Chicago girls, elated by Wood as his sister and cousin. Pistols were freely displayed. One thousand dollars was demanded as satisfaction money. The prisoners, yesterday, partly acknowledged their crime and were committed for examination.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

Dr. Carver and bride were at Chicago on the 28th.

Jean Pierre Charpentier, the French author, is dead.

A convention of paper manufacturers is in session at Saratoga.

The Lazis have concluded not to resist the occupation of Batoum by the Russians.

Blaine is to deliver speeches in Iowa and Illinois, in September, on the financial question.

Joseph Brusher committed suicide in the Home of the Inebriate at San Francisco on the 28th.

G. Lewis, alias Pollock, an escapee from the San Joaquin county jail, has been recaptured at Salinas.

General Joseph E. Johnston has been nominated for Congress in the Third Virginia District by the Conservatives.

A brute named O. D. Stottar has been arrested for violating the person of a little girl 10 years old, his niece by marriage.

The State Temperance Convention at Hartford, Connecticut, on the 28th, nominated a full ticket, with Jesse E. Baldwin for Governor.

Secretary Sherman addressed the merchants of Cincinnati on the 28th, at the close of the session of the Chamber of Commerce, on finance.

The Democratic Convention Territory will meet at Vancouver on the 5th of September, and that of the Republicans on the 5th of October.

Lord Colin Campbell, Liberal, has been elected from Argyleshire, England, to replace his brother, the Marquis of Lorne, in the House of Commons.

The Oregon Legislature convenes on the 9th of September and will elect a United States Senator. The Legislature stands: Republicans, 35; Democrats, 51. Independents, 4.

The San Francisco Board of Health are proceeding vigorously in the work of cleansing out the nuisances of the Chinese quarter. Already many buildings have been declared uninhabitable and ordered vacated, the place owned by Rev. Otis Gibson among the number.

On the 28th, near Lockwood, Michigan, an excursion train on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road met with an accident, caused by a broken rail. Two coaches were thrown down the embankment and thirty-five persons injured, several seriously and three fatally.

The Bigot's Sabbath.

The ungodly gossamer of the San Francisco Exchange blasphemes thus: "The gospel sharps are counseling together to secure such amendments to the constitution as will make the Sabbath a day of rest. The theatres are to be closed, Woodward's gardens and Badger's park are to be opened only on week days, the tired horses that pull the street cars are to be allowed a rest, steamboats shall remain at their berths, there shall be no bray of trumpets or brass bands, no picnicking on the Lord's day, and the saloons shall all be closed. The churches only shall open their doors, and, as usual, collections taken up in addition to pew rent. The penalties for violation of the Sunday law to be as severe fine and imprisonment. Glory hallelujah!"

A Lucky Miner.

Placer Herald: T. M. Thorp, who has been working on Duncan Hill for some years, and who in that time has sunk about fifty different shafts varying from 50 to 200 feet deep, making barely enough out of them to keep soul and body together, came on to a pay streak last month that paid him at first about $20 per ton. As he sunk on it it has become richer very fast, until it finally developed into a regular bonanza. His last crushing yielded him some $200 per ton.

Governor Fenton Urges the Use of Silver.

PARIS, August 29.—Governor Fenton, in his final speech before the Monetary Conference, urged the importance of an international agreement for the use of silver at a certain ratio with gold. He pointed out that, though an occasional readjustment of the ratio, or a temporary limitation of the mintage, might possibly be required, these details could be easily settled.

Addie Gray Recovering.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 28th.—Addie Gray, the young girl who was shot in the back last Monday afternoon by Wm. Baker, is rapidly convalescing. At ten o'clock last evening she was in a much improved condition, with every prospect of her ultimate recovery. The ball has not yet been extracted from the wound, her physician deeming it necessary to wait a day or two longer before attempting the operation.

DENNIS TALKS TO HAYES.

What the President Says on the Various Questions.

WASHINGTON, August 29.—Dennis Kearney meandered into the White House yesterday in his usual independent style, met the President and soon became engrossed in conversation. On the Chinese question, Hayes said that his opinion was that the preponderance of testimony was against the Chinese. Kearney said that the authorities wink at the crimes of the Chinese. The Six Companies are rich and they buy up everything, from the Legislature down, until the people have become thoroughly aroused, and will attend to themselves in future.

Hayes said: "The Chinese now extend over other States, and it seems to me too great a question for one State to grapple with. However, I think Congress will assist California to a final settlement."

Kearney asked Hayes his opinion as to the cause of the depression. The President, in reply, entered into a long story of the war and its results, a subject with which he is no doubt familiar, and with great earnestness he called the depression a reaction of the war—a frost—which he expected earlier than it came. He expected it by 1873. It comes every fifteen years, or thereabouts, as regular as the ebb of the tide.

Kearney—Do you not think the extravagance of our statesmen working in their own interest instead of that of their constituents helped to bring about this result?

The President (nodding)—Yes Mr. Kearney, and without agreeing with a great many of your propositions, I wish to say that I think you are doing good service, noble work. You are concentrating the minds of the people on these evils, and in time the agitation will, I think, bring about good results, if not rectify some of these great wrongs.

Kearney mentioned the fact of the land-grabbers gobbling up all the best acres in California. The President said he was aware of such outrageous action, and expressed himself strongly against any other division of lands in small tracts. He approves of the homestead law.

Happy San Francisco.

Chicago Tribune: Dennis Kearney, in his Market street barrage dwelt upon the poverty and misery of the white workingmen of California, in consequence of Chinese cheap labor. "In California," said he, "we have nothing left but the land—the Chinese take all the rest." Dennis lies. The laboring classes of no city of equal population in the world have as much money as in San Francisco. They have sixty-seven millions of dollars, according to the last official returns made a few weeks since. For a city of less than half the population of Chicago, $67,000,000 of deposits in savings banks is indicative of anything but the poverty and misery the sand-lot hoodlum asserts to exist. The workingmen of Chicago never had to exceed $9,000,000 in the savings banks. The "Friscons" have now more than seven times that sum, with half the population, including the Chinese.

A Lovely Picture.

"Beautiful, beautiful silken hair," Philip murmured fondly, toying lovingly with one of her nut-brown tresses, "soft as the plumage on an angel's wing; light as the thistle down that dances on the summer air; the shimmer of sunset, the glitter of gold, the rich brown of autumnal forests blend in entrancing beauty in its." And just then it came off in his hands and he forgot just what to say next. There was a moment of profound silence, and then Aurelia took it from him and went out of the room with it. When she came back he was gone. They meet now, but they meet as strangers, and the eyes that were wont to beam upon each other with the awakened love light now glare as though life was an eternal wash-day. —Burlington Hawkeye.

Suit for Millions.

Action has been commenced in the first District Court of Nevada by the Rough & Ready Mining Co. against the Justice, Woodville gold and silver Mining company situated in the county of Storey, Nevada, and for $5,000,000 damages. Plaintiffs allege in the complaint that on or about September 1st, 1876, and at divers and sundry other times since that day, the defendants, conspiring and confederating together, forcibly and unlawfully broke and entered upon plaintiffs mine, and abstracted and carried away ore therefrom of great value, to wit: of the value of $5,000,000.

Raris trotted three heats at Milwaukee on the 28th in 2:15½—2:16½—2:15½.

YELLOW FEVER.

The Scourge Increasing to an Alarming Extent.

CANTON, Miss., August 29.—The yellow fever is increasing here. Not a single business house is open except two drug stores. There was once a population of 3500 here, but now only seventy-five whites are to be found. Not a single case of yellow fever has been doctored successfully.

PORT GIBSON, August 29.—No abatement in the scourge. There were 230 cases and thirty-five deaths to date.

VICKSBURG, August 29.—Yesterday there were 125 cases and fourteen deaths.

MEMPHIS, August 29.—For the 24 hours, ending at 6 p. m. yesterday, 62 deaths occurred, all but four of which were from yellow fever. The fever is of the most malignant type, and it is to stay until freezing weather—about the middle of October, more than six weeks away. Nearly all the drug stores are closed, as well as other places. President Langstaff searched for two hours to find a doctor and then failed.

WANTED—PHYSICIANS AND MONEY.

The Director of the medical corps reports to the Howards: "I need ten more physicians immediately. I find scores of people dying without having been seen by physicians." Contributions are coming in, but not in sums equal to the needs. The Ancient Order of United Workmen and the Baptist Relief Committee are both out of funds, and appeal to their brethren throughout the country for substantial aid. The telegraphers of Memphis have formed an association to aid all members of their profession stricken with the fever. Their territory embraces all points north of Canton, Mississippi. They appeal to the fraternity for aid. Chas. A. Gaston is Chairman.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 29.—No part of the city is exempt from the fever. The epidemic, compared with that of 1867, is three times as fatal. It is not hoped that the pestilence will cease before December.

America's Luxuries in England.

Six years ago ice was such a rarity in London that extra charges were made at the hotels if a glass of ice-water was called for, and in most cases the guest had to wait until some could be sent for. An Englishman at that time considered ice-water unhealthy, and looked with amazement at Americans who persisted in calling for it. It was then not kept at the taverns, and it was seldom required. Now the waiters go around at the hotels with bowls of cracked ice, and supply all the guests. That it is a recent innovation is evident from the fact that all the drinking-houses in the city of any character have cards extending across their windows with the "ice" emblazoned in large black letters, about fifteen inches long. It is evidently paraded as an attraction to customers. American whisky is also a new card in their windows. While dining in a restaurant the other day a young Englishman came in and called for "a go" of American whisky. They brought him about a half-tumblerful which he swallowed down raw. His red nose and watery eyes gave evidence that he was not a stranger to this kind of drink. Turning to the bill of fare, we found the following rates: "A go" of brandy, one shilling; "a half-go" of brandy, sixpence; "a go" of whisky, sixpence; "a half-go" of whisky, threepence; "a go" of gin, fourpence, and "a half-go" of gin, twopence. Gin is the favorite drink of the toppers, but whisky is commencing to rival it. Ice wagons are also to be seen in the streets, labeled Newfoundland ice. It is of immense thickness, ranging from fifteen to twenty inches, and as clear as crystal. —Letter in Baltimore American.

An Irreverent Wretch.

The irreverent wretch of the San Francisco Exchange thus flouts a very respectable coolie: Rev. Otis Gibson has petitioned the Board of Supervisors to have set aside in the city cemetery a place for the burial of Christian Chinese. As Mr. Gibson is the only Christian Chinaman in California, the request appears moderate. Colonel Bea, we believe, though a most conscientious Mongolian, is not a Christian. Let Mr. Gibson have six feet of earth, on the condition that he uses it at an early date.

A Glove Fight for Eureka.

Eureka Sentinel: Matt. Skewes agrees to fight Billy Lynn a glove contest for $500 a side—the fight to take place in Eureka on Sunday, September 8, with hard gloves, under the Marquis of Queensbury rules. Two hundred a fifty dollars a side are now up and deposited in the hands of the proprietor of the Parlor saloon. The balance of the money is to be deposited at the same place on Saturday, September 6.

AN IMPOTENT SCHEME.

It has been rumored for some weeks in eastern Nevada that in case John H. Kinkad was nominated, L. R. Bradley would be withdrawn from the fight gubernatorial. We had deemed it merely an idle rumor which had found nourishment along the base range. It was, however, nearer the truth, and nearer home than we had believed. Among the principal supporters of Governor Bradley, General R. M. Clarke, of Carson, looms up with great prominence. We believe, from circumstances coming under our own knowledge, that General Clarke wrote several of the State documents for which Broadhorns claims so much credit, and we believe that his anti-Hobart financial exhibit was prepared for his Excellency by his admiring secretary pro tem., before the Governor had arrived in the State. Be this as it may, however, Gen. Clarke has fairly been identified as the head of Bradley's support among pretended Republicans, before the present year. Now, however, he has two strings to his kite, and they are labeled Kinkad and Bradley. If Kinkad is nominated, Bradley will find himself without the Republican colored support which elected him four years since. If, however, Kinkad should lack strength, the Clarke kite will fly for Broadhorns as before.

We are in a position to show that John H. Kinkad does not want or require such support. We believe that the best interests of the party require that he should go before the convention as he stands, a good square Republican and honorable man. We object and protest against any such mode of handicapping Kinkad with any alternative affecting Bradley or his ilk. The GAZETTE wants a fair, square, unpledged fight, and it will oppose any policy which is liable through misrepresentation to deprive the people of their choice.

The mischief does not stop here, however. Gen. Clarke, while he would like to be Governor through the Broadhorns dynasty, has a sick friend to care for meanwhile. He has therefore assumed to link the fortunes of J. H. Kinkad with those of S. H. Wright, acting upon the same old theory, that unless this gentleman again becomes Judge of the 2nd district the nation is unsafe. Gen. Clarke's plan is something like this: Bradley is left in the stable securely tied, and Kinkad is lead forth, the Gen. is just now giving Judge Wright a lift to put him on Kinkad's back. He will then lead, very slowly, so that Wright may ride. If, however, this gentleman should fall off, and desire to become a Democratic Assemblyman again, Kinkad will be turned loose and the Bradley steed led forth.

This little scheme has become known in this county, and such rumors are affecting Mr. Kinkad seriously. The people here know very well that Grant himself could not carry Wright through this district, even with "Verbun Sap," of the Tribune, to drive. And as we know that John H. Kinkad has never authorized such an abuse of his popularity, we think it but justice to set him right before the people. General Clarke's scheme will not work except as an injustice to Kinkad, and we have here shown the true inwardness of the project for two sufficient reasons: That our friends may see to what unfair chances the friends of Judge Wright are coming, and that we may avoid doing rank injustice to an honorable Republican, and a worthy candidate for the gubernatorial chair.

A QUERY.

I am opposed to the release of the proceeds of mines from taxation, believing that all property, personal and real, should bear its just proportion of the burdens of government.—[General Batterman.]

What may your idea be, General, in regard to the "just proportion" here mentioned? You have in some unaccountable way overlooked the fact that matters of justice appear differently to different men.!

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Mrs. Tilton has been cross-examined once more, this time by a lady. She declares that she wore a lie on the end of her tongue for four years, and at the end of that time found that the garment did not fit. She went to Henry's church in disguise and heard him say that confession was the best medicine for a guilty soul. She then tore the lie off from her tongue's end and allowed the truth to go naked. Mrs. T. has a high-bred scorn for $100,000 and won't lecture. Wish she wouldn't interview herself with a reporter quite so often.

The Oakland Tribune prints this as an "Excerpt":

"If the Postmaster-General and the Secretary of State were to travel together with their families they would crowd a sleeping car. Each is blessed with thirteen children—Ewart's are mostly girls; Key's mostly boys."

So that's an "excerpt," is it? Well, well; there are places where they call it literary hogwash. But then, you never can tell whose pig is under the gate without looking at the ear-marks.

The Lyon county Times affirms that Hon. Henry K. Mitchell is talked of as a possible candidate for either the United States Senate or the Governorship. Although not seeking a nomination, the gentleman is understood to be "in the hands of his friends" and willing to "stand in" for either of the above-named offices.

The "Verbun Sapper" and literary miner of the Tribune will persist in running us for the State Senate from this county. We are obliged for the rare honor, but assure the Deacon that nothing less than Congressman could tempt us into the filthy pool. Be seated, Verbun.

Why is it that a base range journalist cannot be funny without being nasty? A satisfactory answer to this conundrum—which is propounded in the interest of common decency—will be rewarded by a year's subscription to this chaste journal.

Prof. Pasmore and J. E. Bray, two powerful pedagogues, punched each other in Virginia recently. The cause was alleged improper conduct on the part of Bray, who persisted in happening around where the ladies were bathing.

The Stage learns that the name of the Footlight will be shortly changed to the Bradleyphone. We have noticed that the Rushlight showed symptoms of Bradleyphobia for months.

A public meeting has been called in Virginia City by Mayor Belknap. It is proposed to raise funds for the relief of the yellow fever sufferers.

SLOW JUSTICE IN CARSON.

Why don't we have a grand jury before whom to bring the important cases awaiting the action of that body?—Carson Appeal.

Several complaints have reached this office which seems to make this query pertinent. The case of R. A. Clarke, in particular, has been called to our attention as being one in which tardy justice appears to work a conspicuous hardship.

The charge against Clarke for the killing of young Adams, it will be remembered, was ignored by the last grand jury. Nevertheless Clarke was remanded to jail to await the summoning of a second grand jury to reinvestigate the charge. We are credibly informed that the prolonged confinement to which he is subjected is seriously affecting his health, and it is intimated that Judge Wright, in failing to secure a reasonable expeditious trial of the issue, is prompted by personal or political motives.—Virginia Chronicle.

Resolved, That the following be and are hereby appointed Inspectors and Judges of Primary Elections for the various precincts: Reno—Dr. F. Hutchins, M. T. Coats. Glendale—H. D. Fry, Louis W. E. Rice. Wadsworth—Wm. McPherson, J. W. Holbrook. Brown—J. C. Haynes, W. E. Everett. Verdi—J. P. Conner, S. A. Hamlin. Peavine—S. K. Barber, L. D. Wickes. Pyramid—John Hymers, Doc. Woods. Washoe—W. H. Joy, D. D. Grannis. Franktown—Nat. Holmes, W. E. Rice. Mill (Mackay-Fair's Camp)—R. H. Wright, A. H. Hollister.

Resolved, That all members of other political organizations be prohibited from participation in the primaries, and that the following be the test for members of the Republican party: First—Are you a citizen of the United States and State of Nevada, or will you be a lawful voter at the ensuing election? Second—Will you support the nominees of the Republican State and County Convention at the next election.

Resolved, That the Republicans of the various precincts are requested to take immediate steps for the formation of clubs, to the end that every vote may be brought out at the election, it being one of the most important ever held in the county, and from a National and State standpoint, as "Eternal vigilance is the price of Liberty."

WM. DUCK, Chairman.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

AT A MEETING OF THE REPUBLICAN State Central Committee, held May 15, 1878, it was ordered that the Republican State Convention convene at EUREKA, NEVADA.

Wednesday, September 18, 1878
At 12 o'clock, Noon of that day.

For the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, State Controller, State Treasurer, Attorney-General, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Representative in Congress, Justice of the Supreme Court, Clerk of the Supreme Court.

Also for the selection of a State Central Committee, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the Convention.

Delegates to said Convention were apportioned from each county as follows:
Churchill county..... 1 Delegate
Douglas county..... 4 Delegates
Elko county..... 11 Delegates
Esmeralda county..... 7 Delegates
Eureka county..... 15 Delegates
Humboldt county..... 5 Delegates
Lander county..... 5 Delegates
Lincoln county..... 5 Delegates
Lyon county..... 6 Delegates
Ormsby county..... 5 Delegates
Storey county..... 57 Delegates
Washoe county..... 13 Delegates
White Pine county..... 7 Delegates
Total..... 130 Delegates

This Committee recommend to the several County Committees to adopt such restrictions at the primaries as shall exclude all except well-known Republican voters from voting for delegates to the State Convention. The manner of choosing said delegates was referred to the several County Committees for their respective action.

SIMMOND'S NABOB WHISKY.

A GREAT REMEDY.

SIMMOND'S

—FOR—

Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Nervousness.

The Purest and Best

—FOR ALL—

Medicinal and Family Purposes.

HAS BEEN SOLD IN ALL THE EASTERN STATES AND GIVEN UNIVERSAL

satisfaction. It is highly recommended by the Faculty for all cases of Nervousness, Weakness, Debility, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, etc.

It is now introduced to the public of the Pacific Slope, endorsed by certificates of the eminent

DR. J. HAYES, State Assayer of Massachusetts, and DR. H. C. LOUDERBACK of St. Louis, Mo., both gentlemen prominent in their profession, and which is a guaranty to all buyers of its purity and quality.

I can show thousands of letters from private persons, from all parts of the Union and Canada, testifying to its merits and the benefit it has afforded, as a family remedy and tonic.

Dyspepsia is called the national disease of this country, and many reasons why have been given. It is frequently said that people work too much, eat too fast, sleep too little, tax the powers of nerve and brain too incessantly, drink too much ice water, eat too much hot bread, smoke too much tobacco, give way to too much excitement, and consequently play themselves out in the shortest possible time. "A short life and a merry one" seems to be the sentiment that chiefly influences a large number of persons, but for all that no person feels at ease when suffering in health. Now, however, much or little truth should be attached to the opinion of physicians who charge the great prevalence of dyspepsia and nervousness to any of the causes mentioned, it cannot be denied that there are some applications received by druggists throughout the country for medicines to relieve and cure stomach and nervous pains and disorders, and all other maladies that afflict frail humanity. As might be expected under the circumstances, a large number of specifics to successfully counteract these diseases have been introduced to the attention of the public, but nearly all of them have failed to do any good. Whenever, therefore, any alleged new remedial agent is spoken of, very little confidence is felt in it by reason of numerous past disappointments, so that people who are chronic sufferers from dyspepsia, indigestion, physical weakness, or nervousness almost despaired of being cured. They, however, take too despondent a view of the matter, for those who have used the celebrated NABOB WHISKY, which can be had from all respectable druggists and grocers, know by experience that it is a sure remedy for all the maladies referred to, and that its tonic properties are of the most strengthening character. Many persons who found it impossible to properly digest a single meal, and whose physique had been sadly attenuated, have derived immediate benefit from the NABOB WHISKY, and in short time, by its regular use, regained all their health and strength. It can be taken with impunity, as no drugs are incorporated with it, and its healthy action on the human system is at once felt.

The effect which it produces on the organs of the stomach is such as to create a vigorous appetite and render digestion easy, no matter what the habits of the sufferer may be, and it at the same time steadies the nerves and stimulates the brain. There are no fictitious claims for the great remedial agent, so that all persons who are troubled with dyspepsia or nervousness would be false to themselves if they failed to test its curative qualities. Its sale is rapidly on the increase, and the better it is known the more it is used.

CAUTION—None genuine unless labeled with my signature over the cork.
